Position Description:
This position will work within the diverse global Internal Audit Group (IAG) and will have the opportunity to provide subject matter expertise across IAG’s technology, regional and functional audit teams. This is a regional role covering AIG operations primarily in the UK and Europe, but also in the Middle East, and Africa. IT Audit is responsible for the review of application systems, technology infrastructure, and general IT controls in countries... throughout EMEA. The company has a variety of computer environments using varied programming languages, database management systems and software products. IT Audit is seen as being an integrated function in AIG in that both business and technology controls are covered during the reviews. The majority of our audits are completed with, and in support of, our financial audit colleagues.

There are 9 IT Audit staff based in Croydon, and the successful candidate will benefit from working in a large and diverse financial services firm and within a team-oriented environment of the global Internal Audit Group. The candidate will be able to have a unique view of AIG, as part of planning and executing on all aspects of the audit process and risk assessment activities and will have the opportunity to build close working relationships with business and functional teams, colleagues across other assurance functions, and within Internal Audit. The candidate will experience UK and international audit and business practices and potential travel to locations across the region.

Position Requirements:
Job Requirements:
The successful candidates should possess the following skills and knowledge:

- We would expect IT Auditors joining AIG to have specific IT Audit experience in a Big 4 accounting firm or multinational financial service organisation.
- A relevant professional qualification such as CISA would be preferred.
- It would be useful to have a background in Insurance or Financial Services, with any business knowledge of commercial insurance products, operational processes (e.g. underwriting and claims) of benefit.

- Strong analytical and problem solving ability.
- An understanding of governance, risk management and control issues relevant to the assigned portfolio.
- Excellent interpersonal skills to work effectively with a range of stakeholders.
- Highly motivated with the ability to meet deadlines and to ensure quality in every aspect of internal audit work.
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills.
